ADVENTUS MINING ANNOUNCES BOARD CHANGES AS A RESULT OF NEW GOVERNMENT APPOINTMENTS IN ECUADOR

Toronto, May 25, 2021 – Adventus Mining Corporation (“Adventus” or the “Company”) (TSX-V: ADZN, OTCQX: ADVZF - <https://www.commodity-tv.com/ondemand/companies/profil/adventus-mining-corp/>) is pleased to announce changes to its board of directors to reflect management changes at Consorcio Nobis (“Nobis”), one of Ecuador’s largest private organizations and a strategic investor in Adventus.

Mr. Roberto Salas has been designated as Ecuador’s new Minister of Energy and Non-Renewable Natural Resources as a member of the new national government cabinet led by President Guillermo Lasso. Mr. Salas resigned from his roles as Vice Chairman and Chief Executive Officer of Nobis as well as Non-Executive Director of Adventus on May 21, 2021, prior to the inauguration of the new government on May 24, 2021.

Mark Wellings, Chairman of Adventus, commented: “The Board and I would like to thank Roberto Salas for his insightful service and support of Adventus since the strategic investment by Nobis in 2019. We wish Roberto well as he joins the new government of Ecuador and will surely contribute his extensive international business experience to Ecuador’s continuing economic and social development for all stakeholders. Adventus looks forward to working with President Lasso and his administration in advancing responsible exploration and mining activities in Ecuador, which includes the future construction and operation of the El Domo - Curipamba mine that is projected to contribute several hundred million US dollars in foreign direct investment and development benefits to Ecuadorians during the project life.”

Adventus expects to receive and publicly announce Nobis’ new board nominee ahead of the Company’s Annual General Meeting that is scheduled for June 10, 2021. The appointment of the new director nominee will be subject to TSX Venture Exchange review and acceptance.
