SIBANYE CLOSSES SYNDICATION OF US$2,650,000,000 BRIDGE FACILITIES

Westonaria 13 February 2017: Sibanye (JSE: SGL & NYSE: SBGL - http://www.commodity-tv.net/c/search_adv/?v=297063) is pleased to announce that it has successfully closed the syndication of the bridge facilities (the "Facilities"), underwritten by Citi and HSBC, to support its acquisition of Stillwater Mining Company, which was announced on 9 December 2016.

Citi and HSBC also acted as Mandated Lead arrangers and Book runners in respect of the Facilities.

Syndication of the Facilities was launched in early January 2017 and was oversubscribed by more than US$1 billion. The Facilities were structured with three tranches including Facility A comprising a US$750 million bridge-to-equity (which will be repaid following a planned rights offering), Facility B comprising a US$300 million bridge-to-cash and Facility C comprising a US$1,600 million bridge-to-debt capital markets. Syndication raised over US$3 billion of commitments into the syndicated $1.9 billion combined B and C Facilities, across a final syndicate of 16 banks. The syndication attracted strong interest from banks with existing relationships with Sibanye, as well as a number of new international banks, which we believe reflects confidence in Sibanye's operational and financial strategy.

Joining as Mandated Lead Arrangers alongside Citi and HSBC were:

- ABSA Bank Limited (acting through its Corporate and Investment Banking Division)
- Barclays Bank PLC
- Banca IMI S.P.A., London branch
- Credit Suisse International
- FirstRand Bank Limited (acting through its Rand Merchant Bank Division)
- J.P. Morgan Limited
- Mizuho Bank Europe N.V.
- Morgan Stanley Bank International Limited
- Royal Bank of Canada
- Société Générale
- The Bank of Nova Scotia
- The Bank of Tokyo-Mitsubishi UFJ, Ltd.
- The Standard Bank of South Africa Limited

Joining as Lead Arrangers were:

FORWARD-LOOKING STATEMENTS

This announcement includes "forward-looking statements" within the meaning of the "safe harbor" provisions of the United States Private Securities Litigation Reform Act of 1995. Forward-looking statements may be identified by the use of words such as "target", "will", "would", "expect", "anticipate", "plans", "potential", "can", "may" and other similar expressions that predict or indicate future events or trends or that are not statements of historical matters.

These forward-looking statements, including, among others, those relating to Sibanye's future business prospects, revenues and income, expected timings of the transactions (including completion), potential transaction benefits (including statements regarding growth, cost savings and benefits from and access to international financing), PGM pricing expectations, levels of output, supply and demand, information related to the Blitz Project, estimations or expectations of enterprise value, EBTIDA and net asset values, wherever they may occur in this announcement, are necessarily estimates reflecting the best judgment of the senior management and directors of Sibanye, and involve a number of known and unknown risks and uncertainties that could cause actual results, performance or achievements of the Group to differ materially from those suggested by the forward-looking statements. As a consequence, these forward-looking statements should be considered in light of various important factors, including those set forth in this announcement. Important factors that could cause the actual results to differ materially from estimates or projections contained in the forward-looking statements include, without limitation: economic, business, political and social conditions in South Africa, Zimbabwe and elsewhere; changes in assumptions underlying Sibanye's estimation of its current Mineral Reserves and Resources; the ability to achieve anticipated efficiencies and other cost savings in connection with past and future acquisitions, as well as at existing operations; the ability of Sibanye to successfully integrate acquired businesses and operations (whether in the gold mining business or otherwise) into its existing businesses; Sibanye's or Stillwater's ability to complete the proposed transaction; the inability to complete the proposed transaction due to failure to obtain approval of the shareholders of Sibanye or Stillwater or other conditions in the merger agreement; Sibanye's ability to achieve anticipated efficiencies and other cost savings in connection with the transaction; the success of Sibanye's business strategy and any changes thereto, exploration and development activities; the ability of Sibanye to comply with requirements that it operate in a sustainable manner; changes in the market price of gold, PGMs and/or uranium; the occurrence of hazards associated with underground and surface gold, PGMs and uranium mining; the occurrence of labour disruptions and industrial action; Sibanye's future financial position, plans, strategies, objectives, capital expenditures, projected costs and anticipated cost savings and financing plans; the availability, terms and deployment of capital or credit; changes in relevant government regulations, particularly environmental, tax health and safety regulations and new legislation affecting water, mining, mineral rights and business ownership, including any interpretations thereof which may be subject to dispute; the outcome and consequence of any potential or pending litigation or regulatory proceedings or other environmental, health and safety issues; power disruptions, constraints and cost increases; supply chain shortages and increases in the price of production inputs; fluctuations in exchange rates, currency devaluations, inflation and other macro-economic monetary policies; the occurrence of temporary stoppages of mines for safety incidents and unplanned maintenance; Sibanye's ability to hire and retain senior management or sufficient technically skilled employees, as well as its ability to achieve sufficient representation of historically disadvantaged South Africans' in its management positions; failure of Sibanye's information technology and communications systems; the adequacy of Sibanye's insurance coverage; any social unrest, sickness or natural or man-made disaster at informal settlements in the vicinity of some of Sibanye's operations; and the impact of HIV, tuberculosis and other contagious diseases. Further details of potential risks and uncertainties affecting Sibanye are described in Sibanye's filings with the JSE and the SEC, including in Sibanye's Annual Report on Form 20-F, for the fiscal year ended 31 December 2015 and the Integrated Annual Report 2015. These forward-looking statements speak only as of the date of this announcement.

Neither Sibanye nor Stillwater undertake no obligation to update publicly or release any revisions to these forward-looking statements to reflect events or circumstances after the date of this announcement or to reflect the occurrence of unanticipated events.
